Action Taken Report (IQAC meeting held on 14-01-2020)

1. Result Analysis and Online Feedback at the End of Each Semester:

Action Taken:

- An online feedback form was developed to capture detailed input from students and faculty on the academic curriculum and teaching methods.
- The feedback form included sections on course content, teaching effectiveness, assessment methods, and overall student satisfaction.
- The feedback collection process was integrated into the end-of-semester activities, ensuring all students and faculty had the opportunity to participate.
- The collected feedback was analyzed using statistical tools to identify key areas for improvement.

Outcome

- Actionable insights from the feedback were used to make targeted improvements in the academic curriculum.
- Teaching methods were refined based on student and faculty feedback, leading to more effective and engaging learning experiences.
- The feedback process increased student and faculty engagement, as they felt their opinions were valued and acted upon.

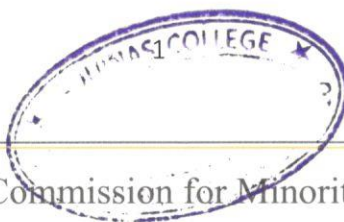

2. Discussion on the Need for a Broader Seminar Series:

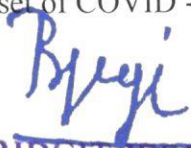

Action Taken:

- The IQAC in collaboration with the Faculty of History decided to conduct a Seminar on Kochi covering aspects like its History and Culture, as the first in the series.
- A support for funding the programme was sought from the PTA and was granted.
- A list of potential speakers, including renowned academicians, industry experts, and thought leaders, was compiled.
- The feasibility of webcasting seminars was assessed to enhance accessibility and reach a larger audience.
- the first seminar planned for March 2020.

Outcome: Due to the lockdown, announced in March 2020 with the onset of COVID -19 the seminar could not be brought to fruition.
