Action Taken Report

(IQAC meeting held on 14.08.2020)

1. Student-Centric Programs for Event Organization

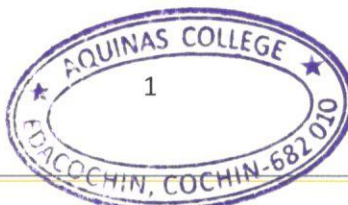

Action Taken:

- The college administration decided to conduct department wise Onam celebration online to adapt to the constraints posed by the COVID-19 pandemic.
- A mentorship system was put in place, pairing students with faculty advisors to guide them through the process of planning and executing virtual events.

Outcome:

- The initiative successfully transitioned student involvement in event organization to an online format, maintaining student engagement and participation during the pandemic.
- The success of the online student-centric program has paved the way for integrating virtual elements into future events, even beyond the pandemic, enhancing the overall event organization framework of the college.
