Seminar

Date:10/01/2024

Time: 3.00

Venue: college Auditorium

Introduction

The College Union of Aquinas college Edakochi organized Seminar on a thought-provoking event aimed at enlightening students on key educational topics. The seminar featured Mr. Santosh T Varghese as the Chief Guest, an esteemed academic and thought leader. The session was designed to broaden students' perspectives on Kerala's perspective on higher education with a special emphasis on the evolving landscape of higher education in Kerala.

Chief Guest & Keynote Address

Welcomed by the college principal Dr Joseph John sir and the student union chairperson Vishnu Mr. Santosh T Varghese took the stage to share his insights. In his keynote address, he highlighted the possibilities and challenges of higher education in Kerala discussing how the state's expanding academic institutions, technological advancements, and government initiatives are shaping a dynamic learning environment.

He stressed the need for students to look beyond conventional degree programs and embrace interdisciplinary studies, skill-based courses, and research opportunities. Kerala, known for its high literacy rate and strong academic culture, is witnessing a shift towards global education standards, offering students opportunities in fields like data science, entrepreneurship, sustainable development, and liberal arts.

Key Discussion Points

During the seminar, several crucial aspects were explored, including:

- The role of public and private universities in offering specialized courses.
- The rise of online education and hybrid learning models.
- Government scholarships and funding options for higher studies in India and abroad.
- The importance of vocational training and industry partnerships for employability.

The interactive session allowed students to voice their concerns and aspirations, making the seminar a highly engaging experience.

Audience Interaction & Panel Discussion

Following the keynote speech, a panel discussion was held with faculty members and student representatives. Thought-provoking questions were raised on topics such as the future of Kerala's job market, the impact of AI on education, and the value of skill-based certifications. The Chief Guest encouraged students to pursue lifelong learning, stay updated with global trends, and leverage Kerala's growing academic resources.

Felicitations

The college principal, Dr Joseph John sir, extended sincere gratitude to Mr. Santosh T Varghese for his inspiring session and valuable insights. The student union members were also acknowledged for their efforts in organizing a meaningful and informative event.

Conclusion

Seminar Day at Aquinas college Edakochi was a remarkable success, leaving students with a clearer vision of their higher education opportunities and career pathways. The discussions provided valuable guidance on how to adapt to the changing educational landscape and make informed choices for their future.
